

PO Box 103, Cazenovia, N.Y. 13035

PRESERVATION MONTH
WALKING TOUR
ARCHITECTURAL DEVELOPMENT
CAZENOVIA HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT

MAY 15, 2021 10:00 AM

TOUR LEADER
TED BARTLETT
VICE PRESIDENT
CAZENOVIA HERITAGE

WALKING TOURS ARE ONLY SUCCESSFUL WITH QUESTIONS FROM PARTICIPANTS, DON'T BE BASHFUL: NO SUCH THING AS A BAD QUESTION!

PLEASE CONSIDER SIGNING UP FOR OUR SECOND PRESERVATION MONTH WALKING TOUR
ARCHITECTURAL QUERIES IN CAZENOVIA RESIDENTIAL NEIGHBORHOOD
SUNDAY, MAY 23 2:00 PM

FOR TOUR SIGN UP, CAZENOVIA HERITAGE INFORMATION, OR TO JOIN
CAZ HERITAGE, PLEASE SEE OUR WEBSITE

<http://www.cazheritage.org>

IMAGES SOURCED FROM CAZENOVIA PUBLIC LIBRARY, LORENZO ARCHIVES, AND AUTHOR'S COLLECTION

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

Lincklaen House and Commercial buildings, mid-
19th century

Counting House, one story

Lincklaen House and commercial buildings 1920s
reflecting late 19th century changes

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

Lincklaen Street early 19th century frame commercial buildings

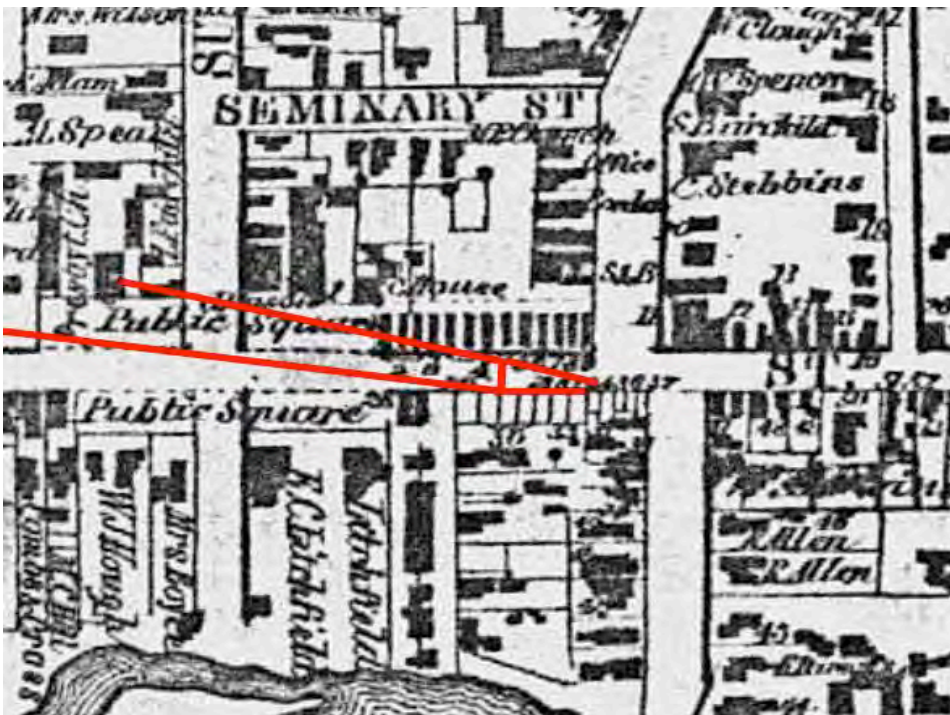

Lincklaen Street note details on brick building to left.

Later details of same building.

c. 1860s, north side showing early 19th century frame commercial buildings and Eddy Block on Public Square

View lines of photo above.

EDDY BLOCK

1855; former store and tavern that stood on the site of the Presbyterian Church Manse - removed c. 1870.

ECCLESSTON'S BLOCK

Notation on Eddy Block.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

North side of Albany Street after fire showing corner building with GR details and balustrade.

Left: 1860s north side of Albany Street before fires with stone and masonry front commercial buildings. Note Presbyterian Church with gray colors.

Below: After fires, left shows detail of masonry building being repaired, right half of building was lost in fire. Right shows north side after fires and Mansard roof on corner building and new infill buildings.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

North side of Albany Street looking east early 20th century.

Similar view 1960s.

Lincklaen House around turn of the century with large bar room windows added.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

South side of Albany Street looking west before fires, Loka Leaf is building on left. Note five stone buildings and flanking Federal style commercial buildings.

Same view after first fire showing infill buildings.

Same as above showing scale of buildings.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

1840s McLaughlin Building
1930s.

Looking west towards Public Square with Park House on left.

Park House as updated in 1880s with porches and tower simply attached to 1830s hotel building.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

South side of Albany Street with Park House to right and other commercial buildings c. 1900.

Left: Same view 1960s after removal of Park House porches and tower and conversion into a Victory Food Market.

Lower Left: 1970s Park House fire just before spreading to three story building in foreground (Alberts)

Lower Right: After fire and first Oneida Bank one-story infill building with truncated Alberts, left, after fire. 1970s

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

South side of Albany Street with five stone buildings and early 19th century Federal style commercial building to left. C 1860s.

Interior former Albert's building first story showing original height of first story floors about 14" higher than they are now; typical for entire street.

Interior former Albert's building, now Allure Dance Studio, third story framing for public hall space with circular opening to skylight and cupola.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

Public Square looking east showing narrower street and general appearance around 1920.

Similar view as above showing Public Square with plantings and Masonic Lodge building with porches.

Painting looking west over the Public Square with Century House (red) before alterations, newly planted trees on the Public Square and John Lincklaen's land office in the distance by the lake.

CAZENOVIA HERITAGE, WALKING TOUR. • MAY 15, 2021
HISTORIC BUSINESS DISTRICT • CAZENOVIA, NEW YORK

Poor image of pre-1807 Breen House where J. Lincklaen boarded after the 1807 fire.

1820s Cazenovia House hotel where Kinneys is today, demolished in the 1960s for a super market. Note garage to left.

Madison County Hotel, to east of Century House and former Smith's Funeral Home. Several sections remain in the village.
