

HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH

WALKING TOUR CAZENOVIA CHURCH EDIFICES

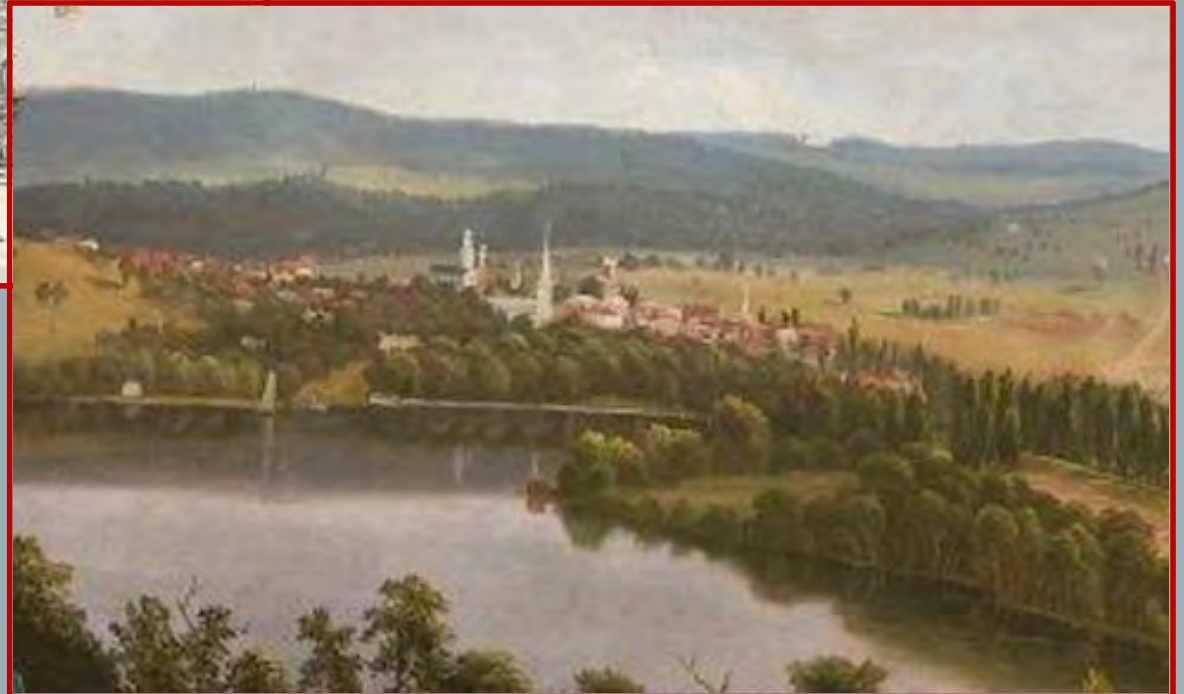

SATURDAY
APRIL 22, 2023
2:00 PM

SPONSORED BY:
CAZENOVIA HERITAGE
&
VILLAGE OF CAZENOVIA
HISTORIC PRESERVATION & ARCHITECTURAL
REVIEW COMMITTEE

HOSTS:
TED BARTLETT
CARL STEARNS
&
ANNE FERGUSON

South Western view of Cazenovia.

THANK YOU'S

- ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
- MISSIO CHURCH
- FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
- DAN KUPER/HAMPTON INN

Free Congregational Church
16 Lincklaen Street
Cazenovia, NY

Built: 1838
Style: Classical Revival with Greek Revival Tower
 Federal Style detailing of cornice, fan light with Greek Revival style tower, transitional
Architect: Unknown
Construction Type: Timber Frame
Notable Features: Steeple, Exterior Detailing, front steps
Alterations: 1854, Purchased by Village (or Town?), renovated for public hall and offices with stage seating for 500
 1886 ,renovated, enlarged as Cazenovia Hall (Casa Nova)
 1895, Burned
Existing: 1897 Cazenovia Theatre
 Renovated by Cazenovia College in 1990s as Catherine Cummings Theatre

Cazenovia United Methodist Church
23 Lincklaen Street
Cazenovia, NY

Reverend Elizabeth Burlew, Pastor (315) 655-3519

Organized : As part of Cortland Circuit in 1816
 Incorporated 1830; First Society, Methodist Episcopal Church in Cazenovia
Built: First Church 1833, Meeting House
Style: Federal with Gothic Revival Detailing
Construction Type: Stone Masonry with Stone trim
Notable Features: Steeple, Pointed Windows, Oval gable window, and Pointed windows & Doorways
 Clock Built by Austin Van Ripper (Caz Steeple clock maker) installed about 1850
Demolished: 1872
Built: Second Building 1873
Architect: Archimedes Russell
Style: Romanesque / Norman Revival
Construction Type: Brick Masonry
Notable Features: Steeple, Windows, Yellow Brick & Brownstone
 Van Ripper Clock relocated to new building
Major Alterations: Rear apse added.
Existing: 1873 Building, with alterations, two spires above corner towers removed

Images (L): First church building of stone masonry construction with both Federal and Gothic Revival style detailing. Church faced Lincklaen Street. LSHS

(R) 1873 Church facing Seminary Street, with towers, Archimedes Russell. LSHS

Unitarian / Universalist Church
37 Farnham Street
Cazenovia, NY

Organized: 1853
 Built: 1853 (inferred)
 Style: American Gothic Revival
 Architect: Unknown
 Construction Type: Frame clapboard siding
 Notable Features: Octagonal Steeple, Shouldered window and doorway hoods, broached spire, brackets, tower buttresses
 Alterations: Remodeled, for commercial use & Roller Rink
 Remodeled for apartments, steeple & windows & post WWII - storefronts removed Existing: 1853 building as renovated for apartments, tower removed, windows removed.

Upper: Early 20th century image showing 1853 building with ecclesiastic detailing on front, commercial alterations to the rear. Photo labeled "Roller Rink". LSHS
 Lower: Existing conditions of building in 2012 for apartment use. Google Maps

St. James Roman Catholic Church
Green Street
Cazenovia, NY

Father Kevin Corcoran, Pastor, (315) 655-3441

Organized: 1849
 Built: 1849-1852 SE Corner of Church (Hurd) and Green Streets
 Style: American Gothic Revival
 Architect: Unknown
 Construction Type: Brick Masonry
 Notable Features: Octagonal Steeple, Exterior Detailing, Doorways & Interior
 Alterations: Rear extension and front Narthex added early 20th century
 Archimedes Russell, architect for alterations.
 Demolished: 1973
 Built: 1973
 Style:
 Construction Type: Brick Masonry with steel frame
 Architect: Jack Teitsch
 Existing: 1973 building with updates

Village Baptist Church
Missio Church
 7 Seminary Street
 Cazenovia, NY

Organized : 1803 (2 miles south of Cazenovia until 1813)
 (Severance says 1802 log meeting house 18'x 24 then Frame house thirty feet square, then 1817 bldg)
 1813 -1817 Services held in Court House

Built: First Building 1817 Meeting House
 Style: Federal
 Construction Type: Timber Frame
 Notable Features: Steeple and Exterior Detailing
 Alterations: Extensively repaired in 1835 and 1868
 Demolished: Burned 1871

Built: Second Building 1880 (15,200.00)
 Architect: Archimedes Russell
 Style:
 Construction Type: Brick Masonry
 Notable Features: Steeple, Windows, Organ 1872
 Existing: 1872 Building with updates and improvements

1790's Meeting House / School
 NW Corner of Sullivan St. & Emory Ave.
 Cazenovia, NY

Built: 1790s
 Style: Late Georgian style Meeting House (26' x26' square)
 Used for most community gatherings

Architect: Unknown
 Construction Type: Timber Frame
 Notable Features: Cupola, Hipped Roof & Details
 Alterations: Remodeled, for commercial use about 1815
 Removed by 1850s

Existing: 1880s House on site

St. Peters Church
Episcopal
10 Mill Street
Cazenovia, NY

The Reverend Rebecca Roberts, Rector, (315) 655-9063

Organized: 1844; incorporated 1845
 Built: 1848
 Style: American Gothic Revival
 Architect: Richard Upjohn (attributed)
 Plans $5/ Const $3,000.00
 Construction Type: Frame with Board Batten exterior
 Notable Features: Steeple, Exterior Detailing, Doorways & Interior
 Alterations: July 1885: S addition 13' x 89', organ chamber
 Exterior; 1900 Complete covering BB with shingles
 1937 New Interior, Spire, simple color interior
 Windows 1880s thru 20th century
 Existing: 1848 building with 1885 & 1937 alterations

Left: Late nineteenth century image showing original Tower, 1885 south addition, Board/Batten siding and GR house to right. LSHS

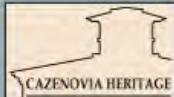

Right: Similar image circa 1937 showing new wood shingle siding, truncated tower, new window, metal cupola tower on roof and GR house to right.

Note the elm trees. LSHS

First Presbyterian Church
27 Albany Street
Cazenovia, NY

The Reverend Anna C. Gheen, Pastor (315) 655-3191

Organized: 1798-1799
 First Meetings: Cazenovia Meeting House/School
 Built: First Location 1806 at head of Church (Hurd) Street on the Green Meeting House, First Presbyterian Congregation in Cazenovia, Dedicated Feb 13, 1806
 Style: Federal Style Meeting House ($5,300)
 Architect: Phillip Hooker ($10)
 Construction Type: Timber Frame
 Notable Features: Steeple, Exterior Detailing, Doorways & Interior
 Moved: 1826 to Albany Street
 Alterations: Extensively repaired in 1834
 Remodeled, 1866??
 Exterior, Italianate Style
 Interior, Sanctuary Refurbished in Italianate Style
 Existing: 1896 building with 1860s alterations

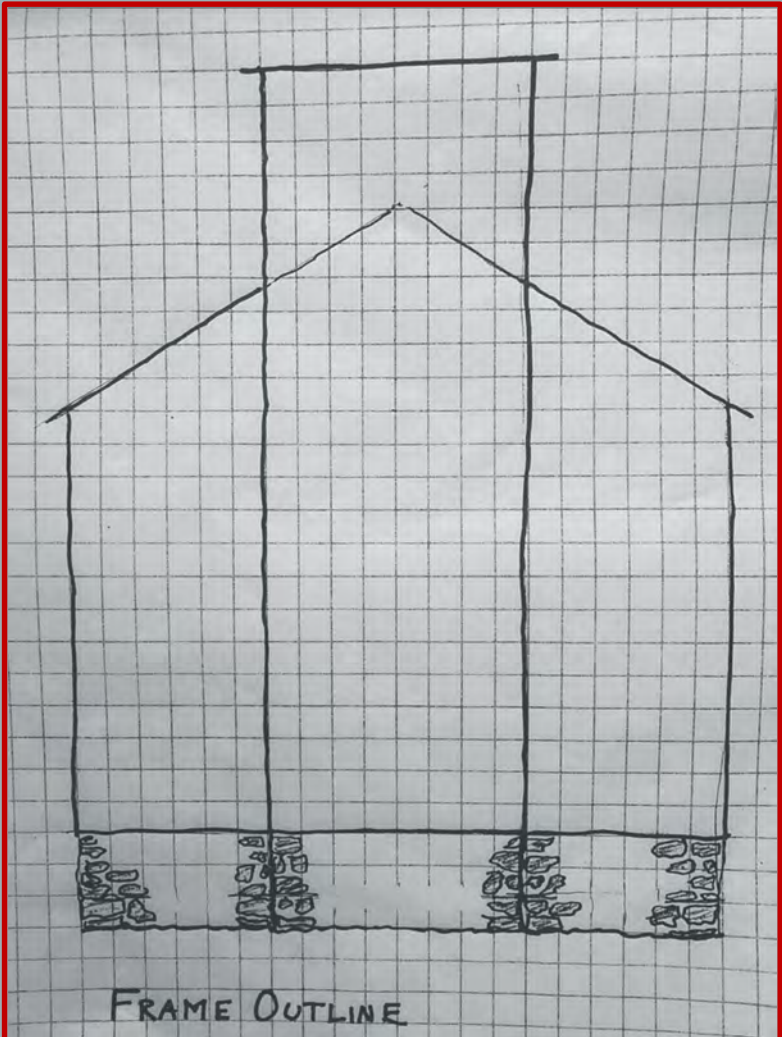

ARCHIMEDES RUSSELL INFLUENCE

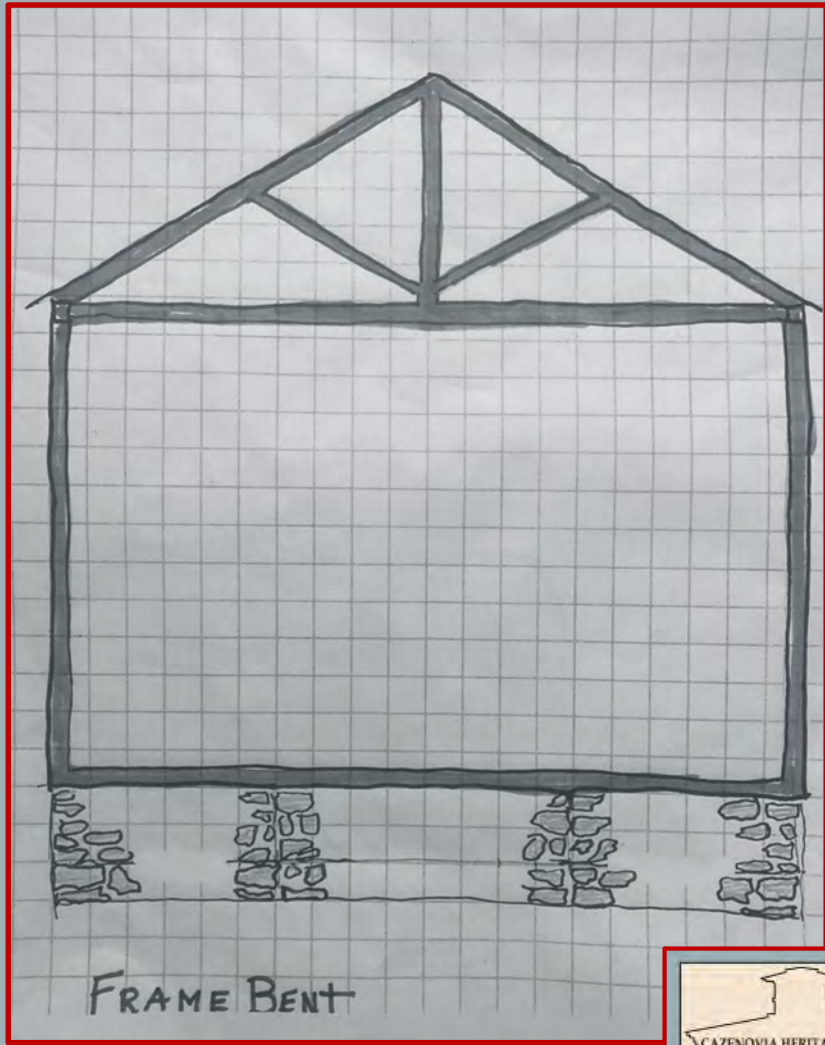

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1860'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (POSSIBLY) | ITALIANATE |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1873 METHODIST CHURCH | ITALIANATE |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1880 FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH | HIGH VICTORIAN GOTHIC |
| <input type="checkbox"/> C. 1910 ST. JAMES CATHOLIC CHURCH (EXPANSION) | 20 TH CENTURY GOTHIC REVIVAL |

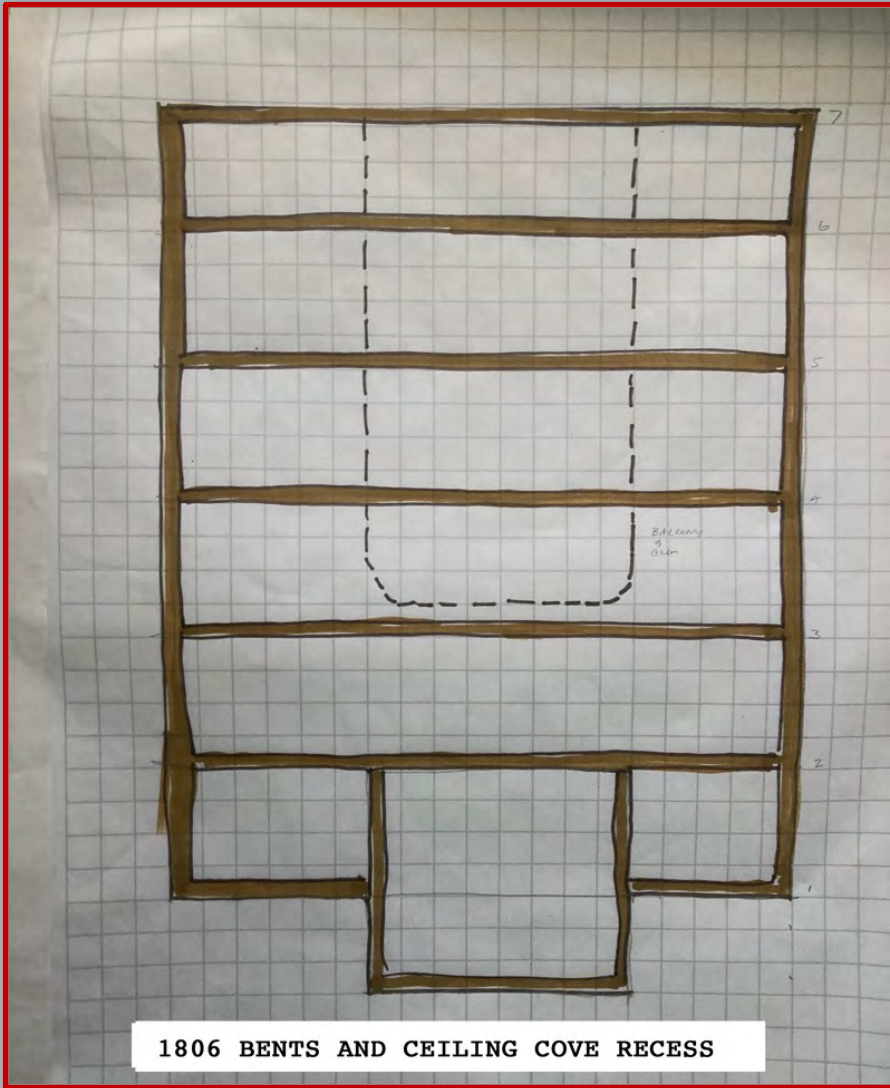

FRAME OUTLINE

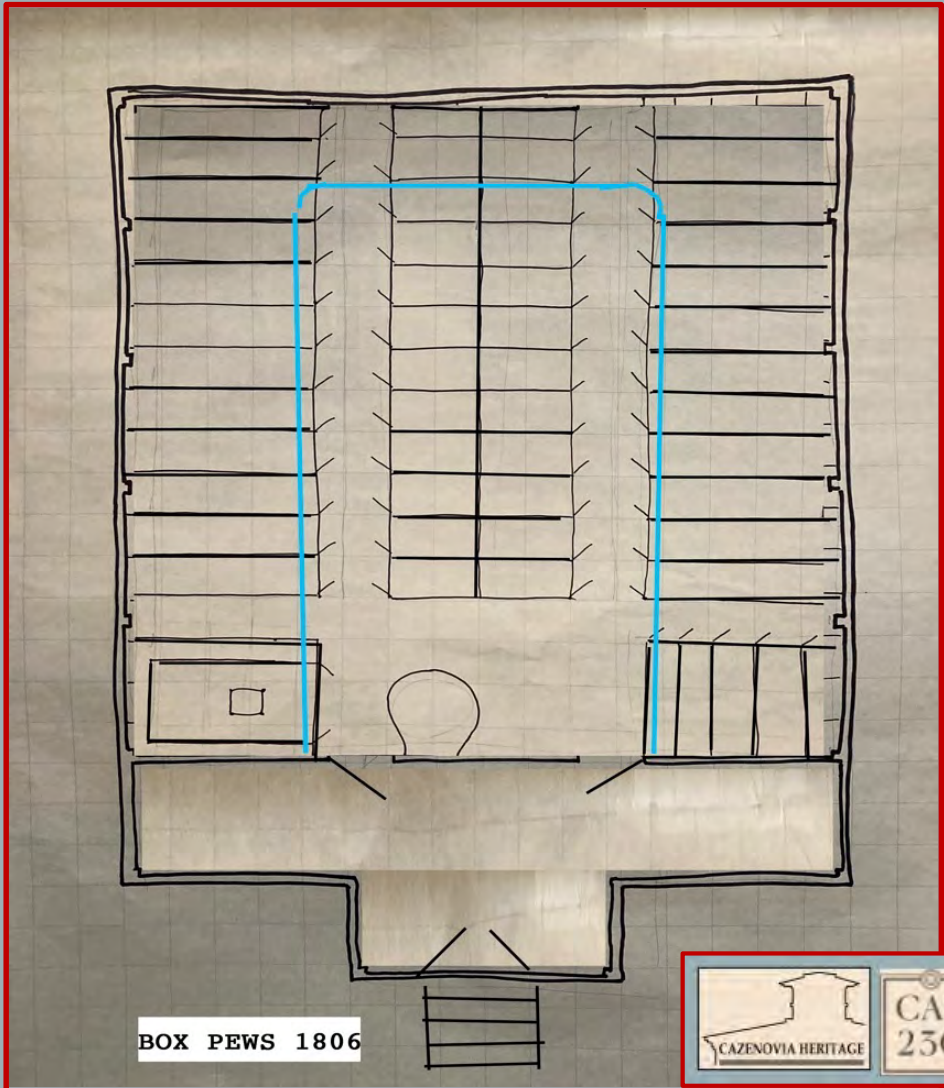

FRAME BENT

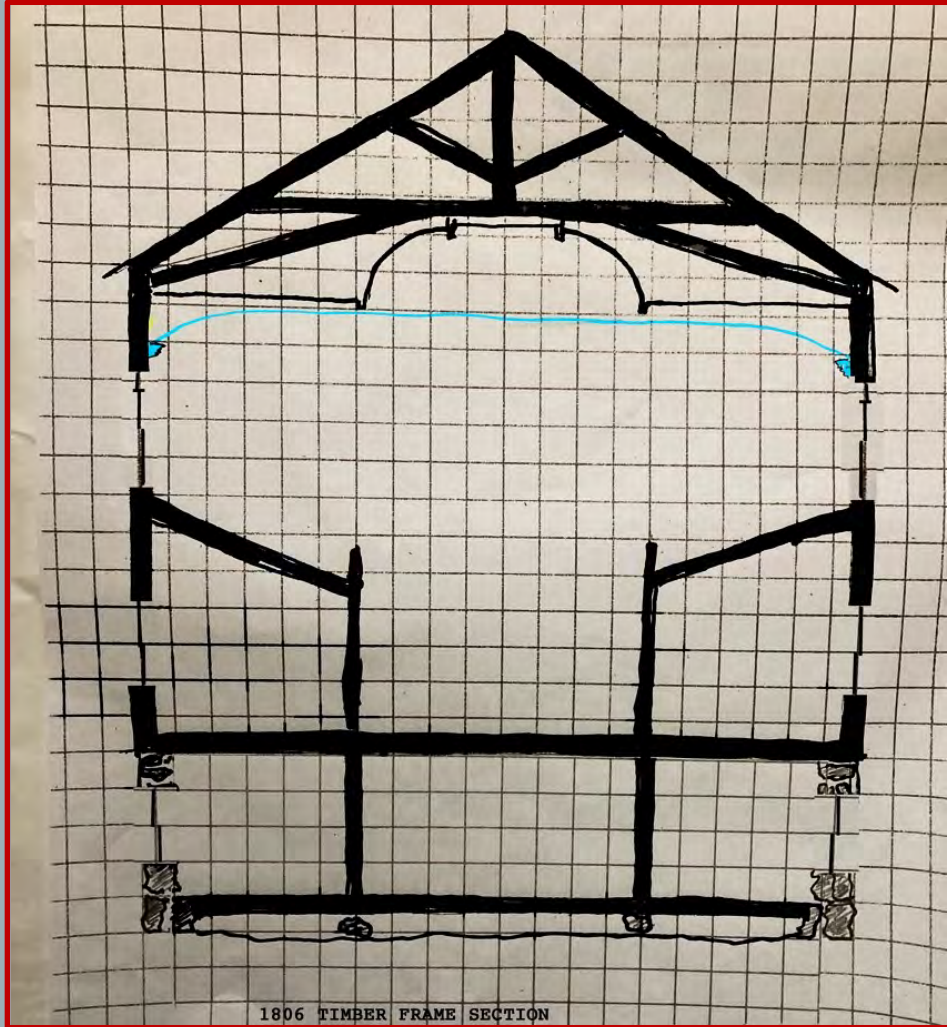

1806 BENTS AND CEILING COVE RECESS

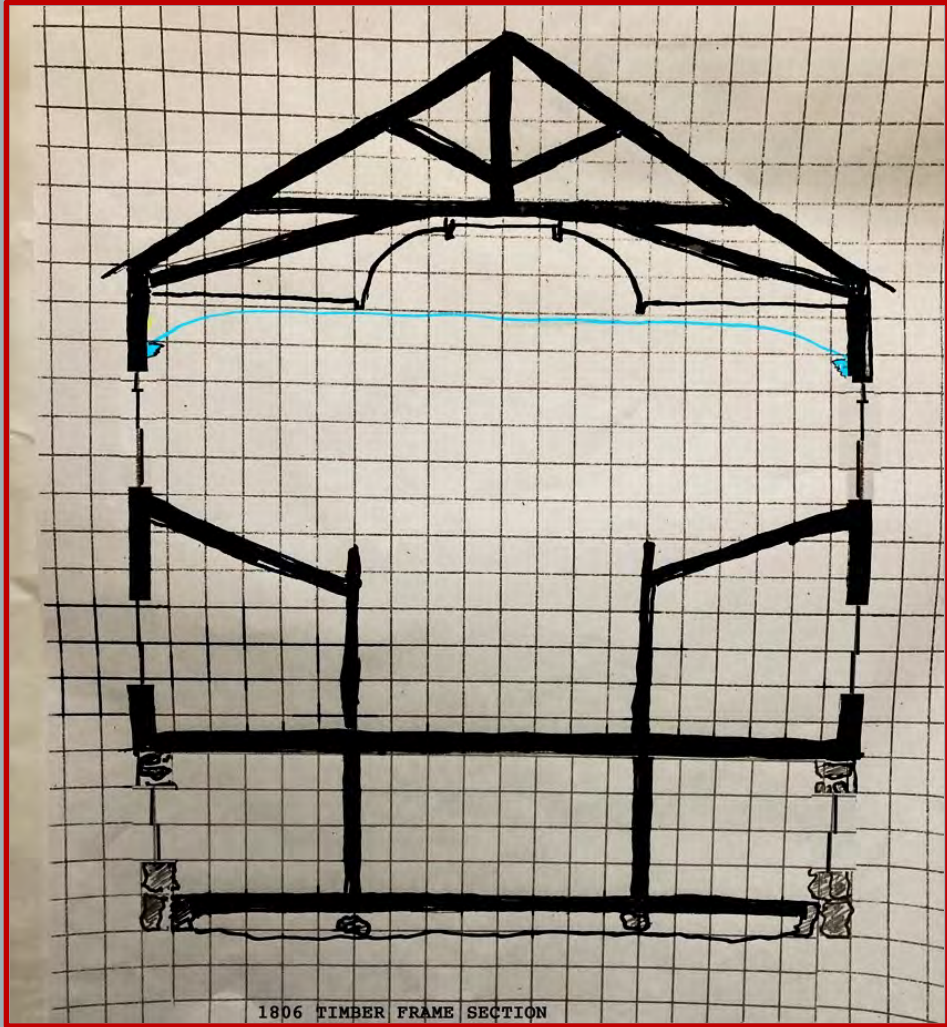

BOX PEWS 1806

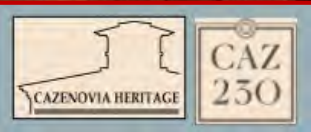

1867

E.G. Weld
Photo

CAZ
250

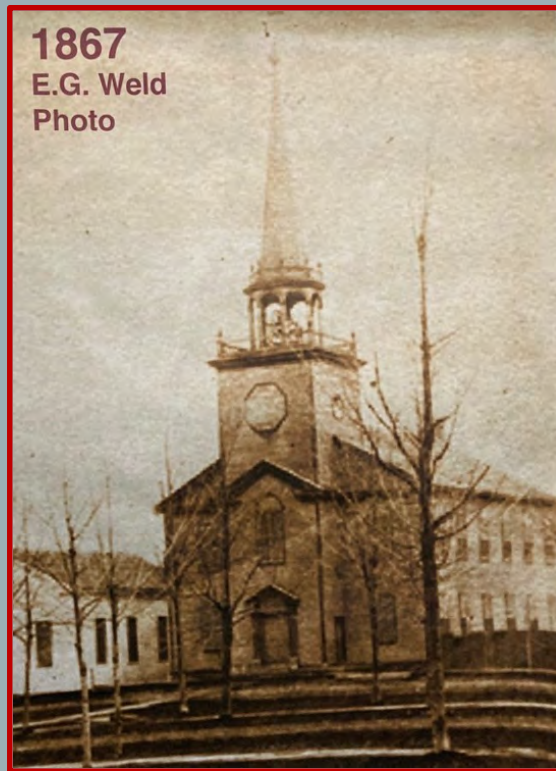

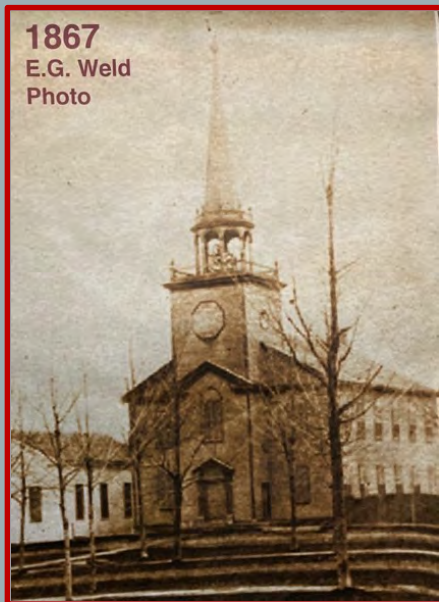

1870s

So, What Do We Know?

- ✓ 1806 Classical Federal Style P. Hooker
- ✓ 1830's Greek Revival Alterations
- ✓ 1860's & 1870's Italianate Alterations
- ✓ Early 20th Century, Sanctuary Simplification
- ✓ Mid & Late 20th Century, Colonial Revival work on the Sanctuary
- ✓ What style is it today? Preservation View

